

Volunteer and Court Ordered Community Service

The following is a list of nonprofit organizations throughout Will County that currently accept volunteers and court ordered community service volunteers. Call them directly.

* Please note that each organization reserves the right to exclude certain offenses and may have a minimum age requirement and/or screening process.

* In the event of community service denial due to nature of offense, it is the individual's responsibility to obtain documentation from the organization, if the judge, attorney or probation officer requires proof of denial.

* Volunteer opportunities are subject to change without notice.

* Certain opportunities may be seasonal.
